Investment Real Estate, LLC Promotes Bledsoe to VP of Brokerage

York, PA - September 15, 2016

John Gilliland, President & CEO of Investment Real Estate, LLC proudly announces the appointment of Kevin Bledsoe to the position of Vice President of Brokerage.

Mr. Bledsoe will head the company's brokerage sales operation. His responsibilities include property sales, due diligence, financial analysis, feasibility studies and overseeing the sales team in the brokerage firm.

Mr. Bledsoe continues to direct the brokerage team made up of Brokerage Advisors Isaac Rothermel and Sparky Brooks. "We are adding sales people to our team in order to provide brokerage services to our customers in New England and West Virginia," Kevin explained. "I am excited to manage our outstanding team during an active market."

"We are very fortunate to have a true expert in the self storage industry," John Gilliland remarked. "Kevin has been a District Manager, a Director of Operations and a Broker now for more than 13 years. He understands the unique intricacies of the self storage industry. Through his experience, he is able to help our sellers and buyers get through each transaction and maximize the value of their self storage investment. This is an exciting time for Investment Real Estate and for Kevin."

Kevin graduated from Bloomsburg University with a Bachelor of Science in Business. He has been in the self storage industry for more than 13 years. Mr. Bledsoe has been a speaker and panelist for the Self Storage Association (SSA) and Pennsylvania Self Storage Association (PASSA). He is an active member of the Self Storage Association and a member of the SSA Young Leaders Group.

Kevin resides in Lancaster, PA with his wife Kasey and son Kaden. He is involved with his son's soccer program and frequents the Philadelphia Union soccer games.
